

Mod²

Do you remember that girl in high school, the one all the boys wanted to date and all the girls wanted to be? That's our Mod² chair. In a sea of blah, this beauty has a little something extra. The French call it "je ne sais quoi" – that inexplicable sparkling something that separates plain janes from beauty queens. Simple, yet incredibly sexy, our Mod² chair is the Homecoming Queen of lounge seating. And although she may be easy on the eyes, we wouldn't recommend asking her out. She only dates college guys.
